

Personal Goals and Commitment

During the past few weeks, we have examined some of the financial challenges facing all of us, and have looked at our spending, saving, and giving habits. We have examined Biblical principles of financial management, and been invited to assess our financial situation and develop a financial plan that will free us from worry and allow us to experience the true joy that comes from simplicity and generosity. As we prepare for consecrating our commitments to the ministry of North Broadway for 2010, we are invited to consider the following commitments:

1. I will thank God daily for all my blessings.
My goal for daily Bible reading and prayer is: _____ times each week.
2. I will seek contentment and simplicity and live within my means.
My spending goal is: _____
3. I will seek freedom from the bonds of credit and debt.
My debt reduction goal is: _____
4. I will seek to wisely manage the gifts that God has given me, investing and saving for the future.
My investment goal is: _____
5. I will worship God each week by the giving of my tithes and offerings.
My estimate of giving for 2010 is: _____

Prayer of dedication: Lord, I present this commitment to you, acknowledging that everything I have and every thing I am is a gift from you. I pray that you will grant me wisdom and strength in the coming year, and that you will bless and use the gifts that I humbly present to you. Amen.

This record of commitment is your personal reminder of your covenant with God.
